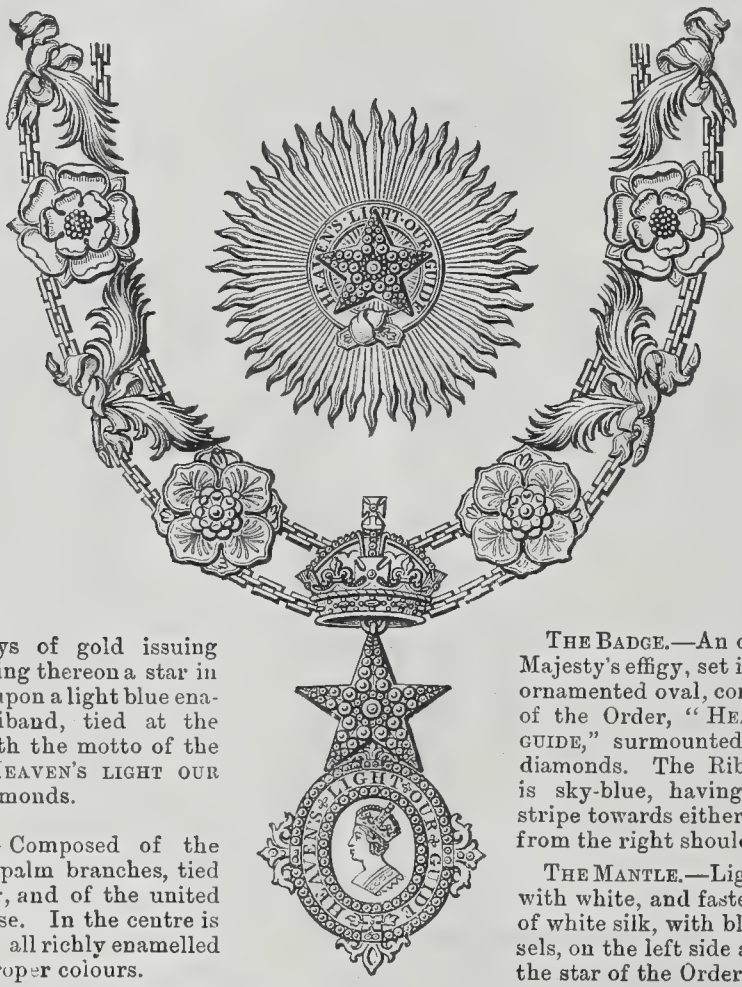
THE MOST EXALTED ORDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

Instituted by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, February 23rd, 1861, and enlarged, March 28th, 1866 and 1876.

The Order consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master, and 205 Ordinary Companions or Members together with such Extra and Honorary Members as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, shall from time to time appoint. The 205 Ordinary Members are divided into three Classes:—the first Class are styled Knights Grand Commanders, and to consist of thirty Members; the second Class to consist of seventy-two Members, to be styled Knights Commanders; the third Class to consist of one hundred and forty-four Members, to be styled Companions. Her Majesty's Viceroy and Governor-General of India for the time being is Grand Master.

The statutes enable the Sovereign to confer the dignity of Knight Grand Commander of the Order upon Princes and Chiefs of India as shall have entitled themselves to her Majesty's favour, and upon such of her Majesty's British subjects as have, by important and loyal services rendered by them to the Indian Empire, merited the Royal favour; and the second and third Classes upon persons who, by their conduct for services in the Indian Empire, have merited the Royal favour.



THE STAR.—Rays of gold issuing from a centre, having thereon a star in diamonds, resting upon a light blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, viz.: — "HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," also in diamonds.

THE COLLAR. — Composed of the lotus of India, of palm branches, tied together, in saltier, and of the united Red and White Rose. In the centre is an imperial crown; all richly enamelled on gold, in their proper colours.

THE BADGE.—An onyx cameo of Her Majesty's effigy, set in a perforated and ornamented oval, containing the motto of the Order, "HEAVEN'S LIGHT OUR GUIDE," surmounted by a star all in diamonds. The Ribbon of the Order is sky-blue, having a narrow white stripe towards either edge, and is worn from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE MANTLE.—Light blue satin, lined with white, and fastened with a cordon of white silk, with blue and silver tassels, on the left side a representation of the star of the Order.

The Knights Commanders wear around their necks a riband of the same colours and pattern as that of the First Class, but two inches in width, hanging therefrom the Badge of a smaller size than that appointed for the Knights Grand Commanders except the star, which surmounts it, is of silver; on their left breast a star composed of rays of silver issuing from a gold centre, having thereon a silver star resting upon a blue enamelled circular riband, tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order.

The Companions wear from the left breast a Badge of the same form as appointed for the Knights Commanders, but of a smaller size pendent to the like riband of the breadth of one inch and a half.

OFFICERS OF THE ORDER.

Secretary—William John Cuningham, Esq., C.S.I. Registrar—Sir Albert W. Woods, K.C.M.G., C.B., Garter King of Arms.

THE MOST DISTINGUISHED ORDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

nstituted 27th April, 1818, by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and enlarged and extended 4th Dec. 1868, and 30th May, 1877, for the natural born subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom as may have held or shall hold high and confidential offices within Her Majesty's colonial possessions, and in reward for services to the Crown in relation to the foreign affairs of the Empire, &c.

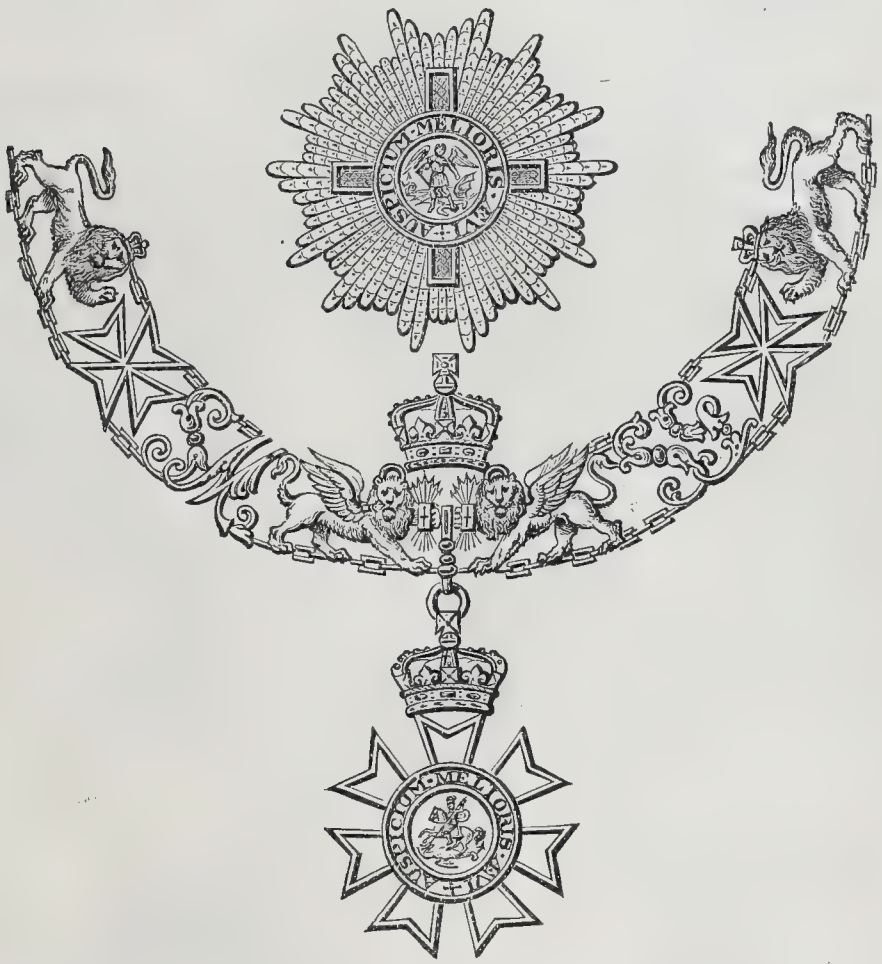
The Order is to consist of not more than fifty Knights Grand Cross, exclusive of Extra and Honorary Members, one hundred and fifty Knights Commanders, and two hundred and sixty Companions.



THE members of the Order enjoy rank and precedency immediately after the corresponding classes of the Order of the Star of India; that is to say, the Knights Grand Cross after Knights Grand Commanders of the Star of India; the Knights Commanders after the Knights Commanders of the Star of India; and the Companions after the Companions of the Star of India. The Grand Master is the First and Principal Knight Grand Cross. The Knights Grand Cross are entitled to bear supporters, and to encircle their arms with the collar, ribbon, and motto of the Order. The Knights Commanders also encircle their arms with the ribbon and motto; and the Companions suspend the badge of the Order to their arms.

HABIT AND INSIGNIA.

THE STAR of a Knight Grand Cross is composed of seven rays of silver, having a small ray of gold between each of them, and over all the cross of St. George, gules. In the centre is a representation of the Archangel St. Michael encountering Satan, within a blue circle, inscribed with the motto, AUSPICIUM MELIORIS ÆVI.

THE COLLAR is formed alternately of lions of England, of Maltese crosses, and of the ciphers S M and S G, having in the centre the imperial crown, over two winged lions, passant-guardant, each holding a book, and seven arrows. At the opposite end of the collar are two similar lions. The whole is of gold except the crosses, which are of white enamel, and it is linked together by small gold chains.

THE BADGE is a gold cross of fourteen points of white enamel, edged with gold, having in the centre on one side, the Archangel St. Michael, encountering Satan, and on the other, St. George on horseback, encountering a dragon, within a blue circle, on which the motto of the Order is inscribed. The Cross is surmounted by the imperial crown, and is worn by the Knights Grand Cross to the Collar, or to a wid Saxon-blue ribbon, with a scarlet stripe from the right shoulder to the left side.

THE CHAPEAU is of blue satin, lined with scarlet, and surmounted with white and black ostrich feather

THE KNIGHTS COMMANDERS wear the badge suspended to a narrower ribbon from the neck, and hav on their left side a star composed of four rays, with a small cross of eight points in saltire, of silve surmounted by the cross of St. George, gules, and having the same centre as the Star of the Grand Crosse

THE COMPANIONS wear the small cross of the Order from a still narrower ribbon at the button-ho of their coats.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen Defender of the Faith, Empress of India, to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas We have taken into Our Royal consideration that the means of adequately rewarding the distinguished services of Officers in Our Naval and Military Services who have been honourably mentioned in Despatches are limited; now for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of rewarding individual instances of meritorious or distinguished service in war, We have instituted and created and by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do institute and create a new Naval and Military Order of Distinction—to be designated as hereinafter described—which We are desirous should be highly prized by the Officers of Our Naval and Military Services, and We are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same, which shall henceforth be inviolably observed and kept;

Firstly. It is ordained, that this Order shall henceforth be styled and designated the "Distinguished Service Order."

Secondly. It is ordained that the Order shall consist of the Sovereign, and of such Members or Companions as We, Our Heirs or Successors, shall appoint.

Thirdly. It is ordained that We, Our Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperors and Empresses of India, are and for ever shall be Sovereigns of this Order.

Fifthly. It is ordained that Foreign Officers who have been associated in Naval and Military operations with Our Forces shall be eligible to be Honorary Members of this Order.

Sixthly. It is ordained that when We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be pleased to appoint any person to be a Member of this Order, such appointment shall be made by Warrant under our Sign Manual, and countersigned by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

Seventhly. It is ordained that the decoration of the Order shall be and shall be worn as is hereinafter set forth.

Eighthly. It is ordained that an Officer shall be appointed to this Order, that is to say, a Secretary and Registrar.

Ninthly. It is ordained that the Secretary and Registrar of this Order shall be appointed by Us, Our Heirs and Successors, and shall have the custody of the archives of the Order. He shall attend to the service of the Order, and shall execute such directions as he may receive from Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

Tenthly. It is ordained that this Order shall rank next to and immediately after Our Order of the Indian Empire, and that the Companions thereof shall in all places and assemblies whatsoever have place and precedency next to and immediately after the Companions of Our said Order of the Indian Empire, and shall rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective nominations.

This Decoration was instituted by a Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date January 29, 1856, for the purpose of rewarding individual acts of bravery, performed by Officers of the lower grades in the Naval and Military Services, or by Warrant and Petty Officers, Seamen, and Marines in the Navy, and Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers in the Army. Any additional Act of Bravery is recorded by a Bar being attached to the Ribbon by which the Cross is suspended. A Pension of £10 per annum is bestowed upon the non-commissioned officers and men who receive the Cross; and a further Pension of £5 a year is given with each Bar.

By another Warrant, bearing date December 13, 1858, it was declared, that Non-Military persons, who, as Volunteers, had borne arms against the Mutineers in India should be considered eligible to receive the decoration of the Victoria Cross, subject to the rules and ordinances already made for the government thereof.

The distinction consists of a Maltese Cross of Bronze, with the Royal Crest in the centre, and underneath which an escroll bearing the inscription "For Valour." On the reverse side of the Bar the Rank and Name of the Recipient is engraved, and on the Cross the name and date of the Action or Campaign in which the honour was won. The Cross is worn suspended from the left breast by a blue ribbon for the Navy, and by a red ribbon for the Army.

This List contains the names of Officers still serving, of Officers retired, and of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men drawing the V.C. annuity.

The Albert Medal.

HE ALBERT MEDAL was instituted by Royal Warrant, dated March 7, 1866, for the purpose of warding, by a mark of Royal favour, the many daring and heroic actions performed by mariners and hers to prevent loss of life, and to save the lives of those who are in danger of perishing by reason of e wrecks and perils of the Sea.

Under this Warrant the Medal was confined to one Class, but it was found that many acts were rformed which were worthy of reward, but which were not of a character sufficiently daring and heroic bring them under the terms of the Warrant establishing the Decoration. The Warrant above ntioned was therefore revoked, and a new one issued on April 12, 1867, by which two new Decorations, led respectively The Albert Medal of the First Class and The Albert Medal of the Second Class, re instituted.

In April, 1877, by another Warrant, these Decorations were extended to cases of gallantry in eventing loss of life from accidents in mines, on railways, and at fires, and other perils on shore.

The Decoration of the First Class for Saving Life at Sea consists of a gold oval-shaped Badge, amelled in dark blue, with a Monogram, composed of the letters V and A, interlaced with an Anchor, ect in gold, surrounded with a Garter in bronze, inscribed in raised letters of gold, "FOR GALLANTRY SAVING LIFE AT SEA," and surmounted by a representation of the Crown of H.R.H. the late Prince nsort, and suspended from a dark blue riband of an inch and three-eighths in width, with four white longitudinal stripes. The Decoration of the Second Class consists of the like-shaped enamelled Badge, cept that in this Class it is entirely worked in bronze, instead of gold and bronze, and suspended m a dark blue riband of five-eighths of an inch in width, with two white longitudinal stripes.

On the reverse side Her Majesty's Royal and Imperial Cypher and Crown shown in relief on the centre.

The Cross to be attached to a dark blue riband edged red, of one inch in width, tied in a bow and worn on the left shoulder.

The Decoration to be worn by the Queen Regnant, the Queen Consort, or the Queen Dowager of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and by any of the Princesses of the Royal Family of Great Britain and Ireland on whom it may be conferred.

The Decoration may be conferred upon any Ladies, whether subjects or foreign persons, who may be recommended to Her Majesty's notice by the Secretary of State for War for special exertions in providing for the nursing, or for attending to, sick and wounded soldiers and sailors.

The names of those upon whom the Decoration may be conferred shall be published in the "London Gazette," and a registry thereof kept in the office of the Secretary of State for War.

If any person on whom such distinction shall be conferred shall by her conduct become unworthy of it, her name shall be erased from the register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and may be restored if such restoration should be justified by the circumstances of the case.

PRECEDENCE.

THE PEERS, BARONETS, AND KNIGHTS, AND THE COMPANIONS OF THE SEVERAL ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD, PLACED ACCORDING TO THEIR RELATIVE RANK.

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

GENERAL REMARKS.

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII., Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignities. This Act was originated by the desire of the King, and it is declared, as a preliminary, that although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords. In addition to this Act of Parliament, the Scale of Precedence is sustained by royal ordinances and ancient usage. The least interference, unless made by Royal or Parliamentary authority, would be destructive of the right of some one entitled to rank on the scale.

The Law of Precedence, though thus confirmed temp. Henry VIII., dates from a far more distant era than the Act "For placing the Lords." Regulations concerning it were officially issued at various periods long antecedent. The first, in point of date, was "The Order of all Estates of Nobles and Gentry of England," framed in 1339, and the last officially issued before the Statute of Henry VIII., the series ordinum of the reign of Henry VII., which Coke considers of the highest authority. The Statute of Henry VIII. was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in.

The next important decrees of Precedence were those of King James I., dated 1612 and 1616. A dispute had arisen between Barons' and Viscounts' younger sons, and the then newly created order of Baronets, as to which should take the higher place, and it was finally determined by the King himself in favour of the Peers' sons.

A leading principle of the Law of Precedence is that precedence emanates from father or husband, and cannot be derived from a female, unless in the case of a Peeress in her own right. The daughter and sole heiress of the first Duke of the Kingdom (unless a Peeress in her own right), would confer no higher precedence on her son, than if she were the daughter of a simple citizen.

It is very difficult to determine when precedence, in the descendants of Dukes, Princes of the Blood Royal, ends. Miles, in his Catalogue of Honour of the time of James I., a work of deep research, compiled from the MSS. of his uncle, the learned Robert Glover, Somerset Herald, at a period when the subject of precedence was much canvassed and considered, asserts that "Dukes descended of the Royal Blood," take place above Dukes not descended of the Royal Blood. How far Glover was borne out in this statement I have not been able to discover, but I must confess my own opinion is very much in accordance with his. At the Court of France, under the old régime, the Royal Family and its descendants were always first.

The question of the precedence of the Great Officers of State of Ireland and Scotland with reference to similar officers in England, is not provided for by the Acts of Union, and has never yet been definitely settled, unless, indeed, the placing of the Lord Chancellor of Ireland next to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Coronation of King WILLIAM IV., be deemed a royal settlement of the point. Selden is of opinion that "The lists that show practice and custom in matters of precedence, are seen in the published assemblies of the States and other solemnities of Coronations, funerals, and the like."

RULES OF PRECEDENCE.

I.—MEN OF OFFICIAL RANK, who have higher personal precedence, are placed according to that higher personal precedence.

II.—IT IS MEN'S RANK that confers precedence and regulates State Ceremonials. At the Queen's Courts, where husbands and wives pass Her Majesty together, the precedence of the husbands is that which is regarded.

III.—THE WIVES AND CHILDREN OF GREAT OFFICERS OF STATE and of all of those who derive their places on the scale from official rank, have no consequent precedence, nor have the wives and children of Archbishops and Bishops.

IV.—A LADY, having precedence by birth (for instance, the daughter of a Peer, Baronet, or Knight), retains her innate rank and precedence although married to a Commoner, but if she be married to a Peer, her precedence is that of her husband.

V.—WIDOWS OF PEERS, BARONETS, AND KNIGHTS, on marrying Commoners, continue by the etiquette of society, though not by law, to retain their titles and precedence. At a Coronation or other state ceremonial, widows of Peers who have married Commoners are not summoned to attend; this rule was followed at the funeral of the Duke of Wellington. In society it is different, and the widows of Peers, Baronets, and Knights, married to untitled Commoners, generally adhere to the titles acquired by their first marriages, although the practice is not derived from right. Widows of "Honorables" who subsequently marry Commoners (not sons of Peers), are not allowed, even by the etiquette of society, to retain the prefix of "Honorable" after such subsequent marriages.

VI.—A PEERESS IN HER OWN RIGHT does not lose her rank and precedence by marriage or widowhood; if she be married to a Peer of higher degree than her own, she has her husband's precedence.

VII.—DAUGHTERS OF PEERS, BARONETS, AND KNIGHTS, and other persons of dignity, rank next immediately after the wives of their eldest brothers.

VIII.—DOWAGER PEERESSES, AND BARONETS' WIDOWS take precedence of the wives of the existing Peers and Baronets of the same creations, from their being senior in the dignity, from their husbands having been nearer the succession; for instance, the Dowager Duchess of Beaufort has precedence of the wife of the present Duke of Beaufort; and on the same principle of being nearer the succession, the son of an existing Peer has precedence above the son of a previous holder of the same title.

IX.—PEERS AND PEERESSES take rank among themselves, thus—I., of England; II., of Scotland; III., of Great Britain; IV., of Ireland; and V. of the United Kingdom and of Ireland, created since the Union, according to the dates of the respective patents.

X.—MAIDS OF HONOUR to Her Majesty the Queen take rank after Barons' daughters, and are allowed the prefix of "Hon."

XI.—THE BARONETS OF ENGLAND, THE BARONETS OF IRELAND, THE BARONETS OF SCOTLAND, THE BARONETS OF GREAT BRITAIN, AND THE BARONETS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, take rank among themselves according to the dates of their respective patents. The Act of Union of Great Britain and Ireland, which fixes the precedence of the different orders of the Peerage, enacts on other precedence, nor does it interfere with or disturb in the slightest degree any other forms of precedence that might then have been in force It is silent as to the English, Irish, or Scotch Baronets, and consequently whatever precedence their original patents conferred, is not affected by that enactment. For instance, Sir Charles Coote inherits a Baronetcy of Ireland, conferred in 1620, and, has, by right, the precedence of that date. There is no law or statute to deprive him of it, or to make him give place, for instance, to Sir Henry James Hawley, whose grandfather, Henry Hawley, was created a Baronet of Great Britain in 1795. Some argue that as the Act of Union fixed the precedence of the Peers of the Three Kingdoms, the precedence of the Baronets may be assumed by analogy; but surely no lawyer or herald would admit the power of "analogy" to destroy a right derived by Patent from the Crown.

XII.—Privy-Councillors of Great Britain and Privy-Councillors of Ireland, take rank, inter se, according to the dates of their being sworn in.

XIII.—Ambassadors yield precedence only to members of the Royal Family of the Court to which they are accredited, and to the sons and brothers of Crowned Heads. Foreign Ministers and Envoys have no real claim to precedence. The question was raised and settled at the Congress of Vienna, in 1815, but of late years place has been allowed them in this country, after Dukes and before Marquesses.

XIV.—Esquires—Armiger, or Esquire, is not, like those names given in the Statute 1 Edward VI., c. 7, s. 3, a name of dignity, but is (as is also, according to Sir Edward Cooke, Gentleman or Yeoman) a name of worship, and cannot be attached to any of the dignities mentioned in the Statute of Edward VI. The different classes to whom the title of Esquire belongs are:—

1. The sons of all the peers and lords of parliament during the lives of their fathers; the younger sons of peers after the death of their fathers; the eldest sons of the younger sons of peers and their eldest sons in perpetual succession.
2. Noblemen of other nations.
3. The eldest (and we think, if any, all the) sons of baronets, and the eldest sons of knights.
4. Esquires created expressly with a collar of SS., and spurs of silver—now obsolete.
5. Persons to whom the Queen gives arms by her own letters patent, with the title of Esquire.
6. Esquires of the Bath, and the eldest sons of those Esquires, pursuant to the statutes of the Order.
7. Barristers-at-law, by their office or profession.
8. Justices of the peace, and mayors, while in the commission, or in office.
9. Persons chosen Esquires to the body of the Prince—now obsolete.
10. Persons attending on the Sovereign's coronation in some notable employment, or persons employed in any superior office of trust (where they have discretionary power, and are not, such as clerks, merely ministerial) under the Crown, or serving in some place of better note in the Queen's household.
11. Persons who are styled Esquires by the Queen in their patents, commissions, or appointments, such as sheriffs of counties, or captains in the army and navy.
12. Attorneys in colonies, where the departments of counsel and attorney are united.

XV.—H.M. Lieutenant of a County and the High Sheriff of a County are given the first places in their own counties. Between the two the higher position appertains, in my opinion, to H.M. Lieutenant of a county.

SCALE OF GENERAL OR SOCIAL PRECEDENCE.

THE precedence here indicated is that which is known as general of social precedence, and is admitted on all occasions and in all society. The Clergy, the Bar, the Military, and other classes have amongst themselves a certain relative rank; but such relative rank is peculiar to each of these classes, and gives them no position on the general or social scale. The following scale comprises those only who enjoy dignities, or (in case of men) official appointments coming within some one of the authorities here cited of statute, patent, or usage.

The marks, or absence of marks show the authorities.

PRECEDENCE OF SPIRITUAL LORDS.

Archbishops.

Archbishops take precedence of all Dukes next to those of the Blood Royal. The Archbishop of Canterbury ranks as first lord, and the Archbishop of York as third coming immediately after the Lord Chancellor.

Bishops.

By an act of parliament passed in the thirty-first year of Henry VIII., it was settled that Bishops take precedence of all Barons, and immediately after Viscounts; the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, preceding their Right Reverend brethren, who take rank among themselves according to seniority of consecration.

PRECEDENCE OF PRIVY COUNCILLORS.

Privy Councillors not being Peers or holding certain offices, are placed immediately after Knights of the Garter. In the Privy Council, all persons who have higher rank than that of Privy Councillor take precedence according to such higher rank. All who have no such higher rank take precedence according to the date of their being sworn into the Privy Council.

PRECEDENCE OF JUDGES, &c.

Special precedence is assigned to the Lord Chief Justice of England and the Master of the Rolls by virtue of their offices. The precedence of the other Judges (who take rank among themselves according to seniority of appointment) is as follows:—

Lords Justices of Appeal and the President of the Probate Divorce and Admiralty Divisions.

Judges of the High Court of Justice.

Judges of County Courts, Serjeants-at-Law, Masters in Chancery, and Masters in Lunacy follow the Knights Bachelors, and precede the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood.

THE KNIGHTS IN ORDER OF PRECEDENCE.

In the following Lists the numbers have been omitted from the names of those Knights who have a higher Precedence than that conferred by their Knighthood.

Where a Knight is a Member of more than one Order, the figure refers to the highest grade, and the initials of the other Orders to which he may belong are attached to his name in the Alphabetical List.

The first List places all Knights in their Order of Precedence, prefixing to each, who has no higher rank, his individual number.

The second List, arranged in alphabetical order, serves as an index to the two former Lists, showing at a glance by the prefix number, the relative precedence inter se of the Knights and Companions.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force December, 1895.)

REGULATIONS ANNEXED TO THE VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY OF JUNE 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

PROTOCOL OF CONFERENCE OF THE FIVE POWERS. AIX-LA-CHAPELLE, NOVEMBER 21, 1818. (MINISTERS RESIDENT.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN CONSULAR OFFICERS AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force December, 1895.)

The comparative rank of Consular Officers, and of Officers in Her Majesty's Naval and Military Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals and Rear-Admirals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors, Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants of eight years' standing.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army, and other Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants.

Consular Officers will take rank in their respective grades amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in conformity with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents, viz.: priority of seniority according to Official Title and to recognition.

PRECEDENCE BETWEEN MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE AND NAVAL AND MILITARY OFFICERS ATTACHED TO EMBASSIES AND MISSIONS ABROAD.

(In force December, 1895.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation may be.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

RELATIVE RANK OF THE OFFICERS OF THE NAVY AND ARMY.

The relative rank of Officers of the Navy with each other and with Officers of the Army shall be as laid down in the following List, and shall in every case take effect according to the dates of their respective commissions, or appointments, except when the relative rank is dependent on the attainment of seniority or completion of service, in which case it shall take effect from such attainment of seniority or completion of service in the particular rank.

Nothing contained in these regulations is to give a claim to any Officer of the Navy to assume command of Her Majesty's Land Forces on shore, nor to any Officer of the Army to assume command of any of Her Majesty's squadrons or Ships, or of any of the Officers or Men thereunto belonging, unless under special authority from the Government in England for any particular Service. But when Officers of the Navy are employed on shore, on joint service with Her Majesty's Land Forces, their relative rank shall carry with it all precedence and advantages attaching to the rank with which it corresponds (except command as aforesaid), and shall regulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel, and light, or allowances in their stead.

The precedence of the Naval Commander-in-Chief in India is next below the Commander-in-Chief in India, if not a Member of Council, and irrespective of their relative Military rank.

At Durbars, Processions, and other Public Ceremonies in India, a distinctive place will be assigned to the Senior Naval Officer on the spot in the absence of the Commander-in-Chief, without reference to his relative military rank.

Under the regulations formerly in force, the precedence of the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Forces in any Colony, was dependent on the question whether or not he was entitled to administer the Government of the Colony in the absence of the Governor. But the alteration of circumstances has rendered this arrangement in some cases inconvenient or anomalous, therefore it is Her Majesty's pleasure that the following rules be now observed in the Colonies in regard to the precedency of Military and Naval Officers in command of Her Majesty's Forces:—

a. The Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, are to have precedency next after the Governor, their own relative rank being determined by the Queen's Regulations on that subject.

b. The Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, are to have precedency next after the Bishop and the Chief Justice, their own relative rank being determined by the Queen's Regulations on that subject.

c. If below the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, the Senior Officer in command of the Troops, and the Officer in command of Her Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, are to continue to take rank, as has heretofore been the case next after the Solicitor-General.

MILITARY RANK AND COMMAND.

An Officer appointed to command a Regiment or Battalion shall exercise command over any other Officers serving therein, irrespectively of the date of appointment. All other Officers doing duty with their Regiments shall take rank according to the dates of their appointments to such Regiments, whether promoted on full-pay or appointed from half-pay; and all Officers serving together with Officers of other Corps shall take rank according to the dates of their respective Commissions in the Army. Should two Officers hold Commissions of the same rank and date, their precedence shall, except in the case of an Officer appointed to command a Regiment or Battalion, be determined by the respective dates of their previous Commissions.

If an Officer be placed upon half-pay on account of ill-health contracted in and by the Service, and be subsequently brought back to full-pay in the same rank and Regiment or Corps, he shall, for precedence in his rank, take the same numerical position as he occupied when placed on half-pay.

If an Officer placed on half-pay on account of wounds, or of sickness caused by active service in the field, be subsequently brought back to full-pay in the same rank and Regiment or Corps, he shall, for precedence in his rank, revert to the original position in relation to the Officers of his Battalion held by him when placed on half-pay, except that, should any Officers have been promoted during his absence from the Regiment or Corps, he shall not be entitled to supersede them in the rank to which they had been promoted, nor have any right himself to promotion until after his restoration to the Regiment or Corps, and then only in ordinary succession.

Colonels serving under Commissions signed by the Queen, or by the General Officer Commanding the Forces in the Dominion of Canada, when employed in any duty in conjunction with General Officers or Colonels serving there under Commissions from any of the Civil authorities in the Dominion, shall have precedence of such Colonial Officers, although the Commissions of the latter be of older date; and in like manner, all Officers below the degree of Colonel having Commissions signed by the Queen, shall have precedence of Colonial Officers of equal rank, though the Commissions of the latter be of older date.

Officers of the Regular Forces, and Officers of the Auxiliary Forces who take rank with Officers of the Regular Forces as the youngest of their degree, shall have precedence of and command the Officers of equal degree serving in the Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps; and the Officers of the Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps shall rank together according to the dates of their respective Commissions. Other questions of precedence among Officers of the same rank in different branches of the Services, when on duty, shall be subject to such Regulations as the Secretary of State may from time to time make.

Honorary Rank carries precedence and other advantages attaching to corresponding Military rank, but shall not entitle the holder of such rank to Military command of any kind, or to the Presidency of Courts-Martial, Courts of Inquiry, Committees, or Boards of Survey.

Ich dien. I serve. Prince of Wales. The King of Bohemia, who fell at the battle of Crécy, had three ostrich feathers for crest, and this Ich dien for motto. The ensign and legend were adopted by the Black Prince,—the words, probably, on account of their apt allusion to the good service he did the day of that victory to his royal father and his country; and they have been continued by his successors, as a lasting memorial of his triumph. There is, however, a tradition at Windsor Castle that the motto is Welch, "Eich Deen," Here's the man, words used by Edward I., on presenting his new-born son to the Welshmen.

In Canopo ut ad Canopum. Louis, Bt. The sense of this legend is the most obscure in the whole list of mottoes. The following explanation has been suggested:—Canopus is the name of a city in Egypt (Gens fortunata Canopi, Virg. Georg. iv. v. 237), now Aboukir, a place celebrated during the Crusades. The word also signifies a fixed star of the first magnitude, in the constellation of Argus, and southern hemisphere (Sidus ingens et clarum, Plin. Hist. Nat. vi. 22). The motto may therefore have been assumed by a crusader, importing that to have fought for the cross in Egypt (in Canopo), was the road to heaven (ad Canopum, equivalent to ad astra)." Admiral Louis, however, having died on board the ship Canopus, another meaning, though perhaps somewhat similar is intended.

The red hand was adopted by James I., as the badge on instituting the order of Baronet. The design of the institution being the colonization of the province of Ulster, in Ireland, the arms of the province were seemed the most appropriate insignia.

THIS Society was founded (in 1865) to investigate fully and impartially important questions of Philosophy and Science, and more especially those alleged to bear upon the great Truths revealed in Holy Scripture, with a view of reconciling any apparent discrepancy between Christianity and Science, so that hasty conclusions may no longer afford opportunity for unseemly attacks, on either hand, to the injury of both Religion and Science.

The Home, Foreign, and Colonial Members and Associates, 1,500 in number, may be divided into two classes: first, Workers, or leading men of learning and science, at home or abroad; and secondly, those desirous of being Supporters of a society with such aims.

The journal of Transactions is sent to all joining. (The Queen has accepted it for Her own library.) As regards the special subjects dealt with, the journal contains not the opinions of any one single individual, but those of many Members, diligent students of the subjects, resident in various countries.

The Fee for Membership is Two Guineas; for Associateship, One Guinea a year.

The Regulations for Candidates for admission may be had on application.

Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

Is the Great Specific for COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. C. BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED A REMEDY to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and, as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.

This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was UNDOUBTEDLY the INVENTOR OF CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.

CHOLERA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, states, "TWO DOSES COMPLETELY CURED ME OF DIARRHŒA."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the true Palliative in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a liquid medicine which assuages PAIN OF EVERY KIND, affords a calm refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the nervous system when exhausted.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA.

Burke's Landed Gentry of Great BRITAIN AND IRELAND, being a record of the Lineage, &c., of about 4,500 Families, with a description of their Arms, Crests, &c. EIGHTH EDITION. Thoroughly Revised throughout, 1894. This edition of the Landed Gentry has been compiled from communications made by the chiefs and heads of families from their private papers, traditions and genealogies. The great aim has been to arrive at accuracy, and, in order to attain this end, every available source of information has been exhausted, and a correspondence carried on which has secured many thousands of communications from those most competent to improve and correct the work. Apocryphal statements, which had crept into former editions, have been expunged, erroneous particulars and incorrect descents discovered and omitted, and some memoirs excluded as being no longer associated with the possession of landed property. In two volumes, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory," &c. 2,340 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

Burke's Peerage, Baronetage, Knight-

AGE, &c. for 1897. 59th EDITION. This Peerage and Baronetage is the only one extant which combines, in one volume, the full genealogical or past, as well as the present, account of all the Peers and Baronets of the realm. The Baronetage, incorporated with the Peerage, is complete in every detail as to the Lineage and present condition of each Baronet and his family. The Knightage has been much enlarged by the introduction of the family connections of the Knights of the several Orders of the Knights Bachelors and of the Members of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council. Precedence.—This important subject has been fully dealt with, and the Lists may be relied on as authoritative. The Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood are placed according to their relative rank; and there is given a Scale of General or Social Precedence, and a List of the Maids of Honour to the Queen, with their relative Precedence. Tables of Precedence of Diplomatic Agents; Relative Rank of the Officers of the Navy and Army; and Precedence in the Colonies, the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Empire are also supplied. There will also be found official Lists of THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE, THE ROYAL ORDER OF VICTORIA AND ALBERT, THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA, THE VICTORIA CROSS, THE ALBERT MEDAL, and THE ROYAL RED CROSS. The heraldic department includes not only the engravings of the arms of both PEERS and BARONETS, but also the written blazon or descriptions. To this work is added a Key, or comprehensive Alphabetical List, by means of which every titled personage, and many others, can be easily traced. Nearly 2,000 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £1 18s. (Published annually.)

"Has for more than half-a-century been regarded as containing a history of all the great titled families in the Empire. There is scarcely a page in the volume that is not full of interest. . . . . There is an excellent index to the work. . . . . Considerable space is devoted to the question of precedence."—Times.
